

SEPTEMBER 2017 TEEN PROGRAMS

ART SPARK

Friday, Sept. 22, 2:00-4:00 PM, For 3rd-8th graders.

In the Meeting Room on the Lower Level

Registration Required

Join us each month to explore different artists and styles of art using various art mediums. You don't have to be a skilled artist to enjoy these projects, we just want you to express yourself! This month we'll be painting, so join us on your day off school and get creative.

TINKER LAB FOR TEENS- DIY Ideas for Your Locker

Sept. 5-16, For 6th-12th grade

In Teen Den on Lower Level

Stop in afterschool and check-out our fun and easy ideas to organize your lock and add some style! We'll have the materials you need to make magnetic notepads and bins to store stuff on the door. We'll also have Washi tape & Duct tape to personalize your folders.

TEEN ADVISORY BOARD (TAB) - New Member Meeting

Monday, Sept. 18, 5:30-6:30 PM, For 6th-12 grade

Meet in Teen Den on Lower Level

For teens who like to meet new people and want to help decide what is happening @your library. We'll meet monthly to help with special projects around the library and come up with ideas for events teens will enjoy.

Get the application form and fill it out before this meeting. Then bring your form to our first meeting and enjoy a Taco Bar while we plan some events for this fall.

TEEN CONTEST in Teen Den on Lower Level

Sept. 25-30, For 6th-12th grade

In honor of the FOL Used Book Sale on Saturday, Sept. 30, we're having a contest to guess how many pages are in the stack of old books on the counter by the Teen Check-out Desk. Person who comes closest to the correct number, without going over, will win a prize!

ADMISSIONS 101- College Planning with Erin McKenzie

Monday, Sept. 25, 6:30-7:30 PM, For Students in 6th-12 grade & their Parents

In Meeting Room on Lower Level

Registration Requested (Space is limited)

This program is meant for families of seniors finishing up their college applications, or families of juniors, sophomores and freshman who are looking for reliable information to prepare for the college application process. Erin McKenzie, former admission counselor, offers expert and individualized guidance through the college search and application process.

Erin will be doing a series of college prep workshops at the library in conjunction with the Tipp-Monroe Community Services Fall Programming. This first workshop, sponsored by the Tipp City Public Library is free, but registration is required because space is limited.
